Name: Ar. Reshma Beddyson
Designation: Visiting Faculty MCAP, Thiruvananthapuram

Educational Details
B. Arch – 2015
Bishop Jerome Institute, Kollam
M. Arch – 2017
S R M School of Architecture, Chennai

About: Reshma Beddyson is an enthusiastic and creative architect with a taste for sustainable and creative methodology, who has 8 years of experience in private practice and 5 years in academics. She is the principal architect of Ben Beddyson Architects Trivandrum. She completed her B. Arch from Bishop Jerome Institute, Kollam, and her M. Arch from SRM School of Architecture Chennai. Previously she was working at SCMS School of Architecture where she was a part of various design studios including thesis and urban design.She joined as Visiting Professor at MCAP (Marian College of Architecture and Planning) in January 2022 and has been shaping the studios ever since.

Interest: An active participant in community development projects mostly in South Kerala. Passionate about conceptualizing yet dedicated to producing practical and viable outputs. She has a keen interest in learning the possibilities of new techniques in building construction and material innovations.Her expertise is in techniques related to space management to make the best out of the least. Her portfolio includesvarious interior and landscape projects in the south of Kerala and Tamil Nadu.

Achievements (Awards/ Conference Presentations / Publications / Training)

Faculty Development Program:

- Teaching Architecture Innovative Approaches- SCMS School of Architecture, Ernakulam
- Researching teaching in architectural education Aalim Muhammed Salegh College Of Architecture, Chennai

Online Certification Courses attended:

- Greening the economy: Sustainable cities- Lund University
- The sustainable development goals: a global transdisciplinary vision for future: University of Copenhagen